PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Enjoy living in this center entrance Colonial in the highly desirable "Flats" neighborhood of Winchester within walking distance of the top rated Ambrose School.

You'll love the charm of this home with its hardwood floors, crown molding window seats, and spacious closets throughout.

The front entry has two closets leading to a wainscoted foyer and grand staircase. The front to back living room has a wood burning fireplace, beamed ceilings and built-in bookcases. The dining room also has beamed ceilings and a built-in corner cabinet. You'll enjoy having your morning coffee in the adjoining breakfast nook with its built-in table and shelving. Enjoy relaxing with friends and family in the sunroom which has beautiful French doors. Like to entertain? You'll find it easy with three pantries, including a butler's pantry off the eat-in kitchen. A servant's staircase leads from the kitchen to the second floor landing. A half bath completes this level.

Ascend either of two staircases to the second floor master suite with a walk-in closet, full bath and sitting room with fireplace; a perfect spot to relax at the end of the day. A second bedroom has a built-in bed with storage space, a third has a large walk-in closet, and the fourth boasts yet another large closet. Another full bath and linen closet complete this level.

Level three has great potential, containing a small "nanny's" room with sink and a large storage area that could be converted to a media room, playroom, exercise room, office. The decision is yours!

The lower level contains a finished area with potential as a game room or media room as well as a laundry room with a double soapstone sink, storage areas including four closets and a room with plumbing hookups for a half bath.

Other features: New Heating System and hot water heater (2009), newer wood Pella windows throughout almost the entire house, Security System, two car garage with garage door opener, overhead storage area, pegboard and electricity.
